

Some things are still being delivered!

Dear Parents and Carers,

Baby Bundles of Joy

We would like to welcome two new arrivals to the Queensgate Community who have arrived during the Lockdown. Both Amelia and Hayley have welcomed new brothers in their homes. Here are Amelia and Amber with brother Alfie and Hayley with brother Jack. Congratulations to both families.

Public Health Nursing number

The public health nursing service have produced a designated phone number for young people to message the School Nursing team if they are anxious or worried at this time. The team will be able to offer call back with advice and signpost to the best resources and services for young people. This is a safe and confidential service especially for young people.

The number is 07341 868124. This dedicated phone line will be open Monday to Friday between 9am and 4pm, including during the school holidays. The young person should leave a message and a member of the team will get back to them as soon as possible, within 24 hours (within the working week of Monday to Friday).

What is the difference between an obstacle and an opportunity?

Our attitude toward it.

Every opportunity has a difficulty, and every difficulty is an opportunity.

Stay at Home Hero Poster for Children: Our 'Stay at Home Hero' certificate has been produced to help police engage children, particularly when attending domestic or other incidents where children are at risk or are witnesses, as a means to break down barriers to conversations

Recognising that all children may like the reward certificate in recognition of them staying at home to keep themselves, others and the NHS safe, we are delighted to share these for more general use. Two versions are available to download and print:

Radicalisation Information for Parents & Carers: Covid-19 is thought to be increasing the amount of time children and young people are spending online – isolation can increase feelings of loneliness and frustration which may lead them to engaging new groups or individuals, increasing the risk of coming into contact with people looking to exploit and influence them.

Recognising this risk, and the complexity of radicalisation, advice has been produced by national organisations including NSPCC, CEOP, Internet Matters and Counter Terrorism Police to help parents and carers understand such risks and the signs to look out for.

Please visit our Safe4me parent page for general advice and information on a range of topics including radicalisation:

Well done again everyone.
 Keep going - having a routine and doing work spaced out with rewards / downtime in between is the best way to approach your learning.
