

Aerial photos of the Isle of Wight

Cowes & East Cowes

Osborne House

Carisbooke Castle

The Needles

Isle of Wight Festival

Ryde Esplanade

The Isle of Wight

You can clearly see The Solent, the water that separates the Isle of Wight from the mainland.

The Needles are here.

Newport is here.

Here is Cowes Harbour with the River Medina leading to Newport.

Ryde is here.

Here is Sandown Bay

Here is Bournemouth Harbour.

Queensgate Primary School

If you have an older brother or sister, you may know about this event. On 23rd September 2016, over 800 children and teachers in East Cowes created a lasting image of the Isle of Wight, in the grounds of Osborne House. All four East Cowes Schools; Holy Cross and Queensgate primary school, The Studio School and the Priory School came together to create the aerial spectacle commemorate Isle of Wight Day.

