At Queensgate Foundation Primary School we have a duty under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 to have in place a behaviour policy that is consistent throughout the school.

We believe that we promote good behaviour by creating a happy caring school environment where everyone feels valued, respected, secure and free from all forms of anti-social behaviour.

We encourage pupils to achieve in a learning environment where self-discipline is promoted and good behaviour is the norm. We believe pupils will achieve their full potential in a happy, stimulating and ordered school environment.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

Aims

- To create an ethos that makes everyone in the school community feel valued and respected.
- To promote good behaviour by forging sound working relationships with everyone involved with the school.
- To promote self-discipline and proper regard for authority among pupils.
- To prevent all forms of bullying among pupils by encouraging good behaviour and respect for others.

Procedure

Role of the Governing Body

The GB has:

- the duty to set the framework of the school's policy on pupil discipline after consultation with the parents and pupils of the school;
- responsibility to ensure that the school complies with this policy;
- delegated powers and responsibilities to the Headteacher to ensure that school personnel and pupils are aware of this policy;
- support the Headteacher and school personnel in maintaining high standards of behaviour;
- responsibility for the effective implementation, monitoring and evaluation of this policy

Role of the Headteacher

The Headteacher will:

- determine the detail of the standard of behaviour that is acceptable to the school; this is done through the Queensgate Code as a Foundation of expectations
- work hard with everyone in the school community to create an ethos that makes everyone feel valued and respected;
- promote good behaviour by forging sound working relationships with everyone involved with the school;
- encourage good behaviour and respect for others, in order to prevent all forms of bullying among pupils;

- ensure the health, safety and welfare of all children in the school;
- work with the School Council to create a set of school rules that will encourage good behaviour and respect for others;
- monitor the effectiveness of this policy;
- annually report to the GB on the effectiveness and development of this policy

Role of School Personnel

School personnel are expected to:

- encourage good behaviour and respect for others in pupils and to apply all rewards and sanctions fairly and consistently;
- promote self-discipline amongst pupils;
- deal appropriately with any unacceptable behaviour;
- apply all rewards and sanctions fairly and consistently;
- discuss pupil behaviour and discipline regularly at staff meetings;
- provide well planned, interesting and demanding lessons which will contribute to maintaining good discipline;
- attend periodic training on behaviour management;
- ensure the health and safety of the pupils in their care;
- identify problems that may arise and to offer solutions to the problem

Role of Pupils

Pupils are expected to:

- Follow the Queensgate Code at all times;
- show consideration to others;
- make suggestions about school behaviour via the School Council;
- obey all health and safety regulations in all areas of the school;
- not make unacceptable remarks against fellow pupils or school personnel;
- co-sign and abide by the Home School Agreement

Role of Parents

Parents are encouraged to:

- have good relations with the school;
- support good behaviour;
- sign the school's 'Home-School Agreement';
- ensure their children understand and value the meaning of good behaviour;
- support school rules and sanctions;

Exclusion

The GB has decided that in exceptional circumstances that exclusion will be used as a sanction either as a:

- fixed term or
- permanent exclusion

Pupil Support

A number of pupil support systems are in place and are proving effective in promoting good behaviour. All school personnel work hard to ensure that these systems run smoothly.

Good Behaviour

There are a variety of ways and strategies that encourage good behaviour, for example, the use of the red and green triangles, reward cards, class rewards and attendance awards.

Outside Agencies

We have invaluable support for pupils who demonstrate persistent poor behaviour from the:

- educational psychologist;
- educational welfare officer;
- school health nurse and from
- Behaviour and Parent Support Team
- Social Services

Incidents

- Records of poor behaviour are kept on the blue cause for concern sheets.
- The Headteacher or deputy headteacher thoroughly investigates all incidents and reports that are made to them.

Monitoring the Effectiveness of the Policy

Annually the effectiveness of this policy will be reviewed, or when the need arises, and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be made to the governors.
