Writing -

- Keep a diary of the different activities you do each day.
- Stories from pictures - see below for details of 4 different examples.

- Where are the girl and the dragon? What can they see from this place? What are they looking at?
- Why are they here?
- Are they friends? Does the girl own the dragon as a pet? Or does the dragon own the girl as its pet?
- What species of dragon do you think it is? Is it friendly?
- Does anyone else know that they're up here? What might other people say about their friendship?
- Give this picture a new title. Explain your choices and persuade others that yours is the best title.
- Write about the adventures of the girl and the dragon.

What can you see here?

- Where are they? How do you know?
- Where did they come from?
- Why did they come to the moon?
- What equipment does the man have? Why does he need it?
- Do you think the dog enjoys being on the moon? Why? What about the man?
- How long do you think they'll stay?
- What will they do here?
- Will anyone else join them?
- Write about what happens to them on the moon.

Suddenly Rocket man saw something in the distance...

What kind of monster is this?

- What do you think the kitten is dreaming of?
- What is the monster going to do?
- What do you think will happen next?
- Continue this story - include an unexpected twist

Once upon a picture....

- Why is the house taking off?
- Is this house special?
- Is there anyone inside the house?
- What about the other houses?
- What do the neighbours think?
How are they reacting?
- What will happen to the house?
And those inside?

Write a story describing what has and will happen.

Extension- Imagine you are in the house. Write a letter to someone from inside the house. It could be a rescue letter, or describing what happened or a letter to tell someone that you are travelling to see them!
